ppjs1979 wrote a review Nov 2019Ballymena, United Kingdom2 contributionsZombie escape room chicagoWent to escape room with a zombie today with work friends. Was a single room puzzle. I usually like were you have a few rooms to work through, but this one was pretty cool. Won't go into any spoilers, but it was a challenging enough space with solved puzzles, no huge logic leaps to be made. Was well run and good fun. Ethan and Ingrid did a great job of hinting and encouraging without being too obvious Thanks much Would recommend and would try their other rooms. . . . We went to Room Escape Time and did the Villain room to defeat Dr Danger, who stole our powers. Hank aka Pat was Dr. Farer's evil assistant who tried to destroy our mission to disarm the bomb before the clock ran out and blew us up! Pat's accent and passion was the most amusing thing about the whole event. The room was fun and the tracks were hard but not impossible. We had 3 adults over 37 years old and 2 pre tweens at 11 years each, they were enjoying themselves and were able to help solve some puzzles. We beat the clock and disarmed the bomb with 4:48 left on the clock. I would recommend this to a family or a girls evening or even team building. It was a great time and remember to ask for Hank aka Pat it wouldn't have been the same without him!! ... We made room with zombie. Although we didn't escape, it was fun and the zombie and Dr. Oxy were pretty cool. Just wish there was a starting point and you solved clues in sequence. They were basically all over the place.... Date of experience: May 2018Reagan S wrote a review May 2018Houston, Texas172 contributions53 useful voicesI hated it - just personal opinion. I went with friends and I hated it. Didn't like the process, but it's just me.. This is my opinion and should not reflect on the operation of the business at all.. It seemed well run and planned out, people were nice and welcoming. Others in my group liked it and had a blast.. It just wasn't my thing. Next trip I'll pass and just wait for them down the street and have a few drinks until they figure out how to escape. ...
